Gary Tagtmeier's Fees for Creating Value

Gary's fees for presentations can vary depending on the following:

- (1) multiple presentations at the same location / conference
- (2) length of the presentation
- (3) providing Gary's Making Ends Meet & Dreams Come True book, or Complete Financial Lifecycle Program workbook for attendees
- (4) location of the presentations
- (5) expenses being the actual out of pocket or all inclusive, and
- (6) services for creating customized presentations

A typical investment will run between $4,000.00 and $10,000.00. Call Gary directly to discuss what might be best for your audience (1-800-972-7430).

Gary's Pledge: I will work with the meeting / training coordinator to assess the background of the audience and insure that there is a fit with my programs. I will always give folks objective, simple, and easy to understand financial tips and tools that can make major improvements in their lives and the lives of their families. I will also do everything possible to motivate folks to take action with the information they learn. Every presentation will be delivered on time and with a very high level of energy that will be stimulating to the audience.
